It's therapy

It's fun

It's enlightening

It's creative

It's attitude changing

It's surprising

This class was laughter rolling on the table tops, across the carpet and up the walls. A safe place to say, to write, to express what's real and true. I belong. I am more me than I was before.

~Marsha West, Plant City

I wish the class would go on forever. I loved writing, sharing, networking and baring my soul with such an empowering group of brilliant friends. The prompts made it easy for me to let go and be creative.

~Misty Powell, Bartow

Wednesday's night and the writing class got to be the highlight of the week. You are cheating yourself if you don't look in this mirror.

~Marilyn Rye, Snowbird
